Commissioner Reports

- Chair Palera informed the commission that Chief Heitman was chosen as one of four probation Chiefs to sit on a working group looking into Juvenile Hall Utilization thru out the state.
- New Commission applications will be looked into and a process will be set up to confirm they get to Judge
- The Commission reviewed the reports for the Hall and Camp and suggested changes that will be included before submission by chair.
- Chair Tanney informed us there was a need to reinspect group home that was deficient on last inspection. A date will be set and volunteers will be asked for.
- Chair Palera would send out the dates for the next meeting.
